B. SHARES

5. Issue of shares

- (1) Subject to Articles 5(2) and 5(3), of these Articles, the Board may issue such shares to such persons as it thinks fit in accordance with section 51 of the Act. Where the shares confer rights other than those specified in subsection (2) of section 49 of the Act, or impose any obligation on the holder, the Board shall approve terms of issue which set out the rights and obligations attached to those shares as required by subsection (2) of section 51.

- (2) Before it issues shares, the Board shall decide the consideration for which the shares will be issued. The consideration shall be (in the opinion of the Board) fair and reasonable to the Company and to all existing shareholders.
- (3) Where the Company issues shares which rank equally with or prior to existing shares, those shares shall be offered to the holders of the existing shares in a manner which would, if accepted, maintain the relative voting and distribution rights of those shareholders. The offer shall remain open for acceptance for a reasonable time

6. Calls on shares

- (1) Where a share imposes any obligation on the holder to pay an amount of money-
 - (a) on a fixed date, the holder shall pay that amount on that date;
 - (b) when called on to do so by the Board, the Board may at any time give written notice to the holder requiring the payment to be made within a specified period of not less than twenty (20) working days, and the payment shall be made in accordance with that notice.

Any amount not paid by the due date shall carry interest at a rate fixed by the Board not exceeding ten per cent (10%) per annum, accruing daily. The Board may at its discretion waive payment of interest.

- (2) Joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable for any payments to be made under paragraph (1) of this Article.
- (3) The Company has a lien on every share to which paragraph (1)(a) of this Article applies, and on every distribution payable in respect of that share, for all amounts presently due and payable to the Company in respect of that share.
- (4) The Company may sell in such manner as the Board thinks fit, any shares on which the Company has a lien, if—
 - (a) the Company has given written notice of its intention to do so to the shareholder; and
 - (b) the shareholder has failed to make the payment in respect of which the lien has arisen, within ten (10) working days of the giving of that notice.

The transfer may be signed on behalf of the purchaser by any person appointed to do so by the Board, and the purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares transferred and his title shall not be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the sale.

- (5) The proceeds of a sale under paragraph (4) of this Article shall be received by the Company and applied first in payment of the costs of sale, and then in payment of the amount in respect of which the lien arose. The remainder shall be paid to the person entitled to the shares, at the time of the sale.
- (6) The rights and entitlements attached to shares shall not be varied without the consent of at least three fourths of the holders of such shares by way of a special resolution.

7. Distributions

- (1) The Company may make distributions to shareholders in accordance with section 56 of the Act.
- (2) The Board may from time to time approve the payment of a final or an interim dividend to shareholders, where that appears to be justified by the Company's profits, without the need for approval by any ordinary resolution of the shareholders.
- (3) The Board shall obtain a certificate of solvency from the Auditors and be satisfied that the Company will immediately after such dividend is paid, satisfy the solvency test. The directors who vote in favour of the payment thereof shall sign a certificate of their opinion to that effect.
- (4) The Company is deemed to have satisfied the solvency test if—
 - (a) it is able to pay its debts as they fall due in the normal course of business; and
 - (b) the value of its assets is greater than the aggregate of the value of its liabilities and its stated capital.

8. Share register, share certificates and transfer and transmission of shares

- (1) The Company shall maintain a share register, which complies with section 123 of the Act. The share register shall be kept at the registered office of the Company or at any other place in Sri Lanka, notice of which has been given to the Registrar in accordance with subsection (4) of section 124 of the Act.
- (2) Where shares are to be transferred, a form of transfer signed by the holder or by his legal representative shall be delivered to the Company. The transfer shall be signed by the transferee if the share imposes any liability on its holder.
- (3) The Board may resolve to refuse to register a transfer of a share within six weeks of receipt of the transfer, if any amount payable to the Company in respect of the share is due but unpaid.
- (4) Where a joint holder of a share dies, the remaining holders shall be treated by the Company as the holders of that share.
- (5) Where the Company issues shares or the transfer of any shares is entered on the share register, the Company shall within two months complete and have ready for delivery a share certificate in respect of the shares.
- (6) If a share certificate be defaced, lost or destroyed, it may be renewed or replaced on payment of such fee (if any) not exceeding Rupees Ten (Rs.10.00) and on such terms (if any) as to evidence and indemnify and the payment of out-of-pocket expenses of the Company in investigating evidence as the Directors think fit.
- (7) The Company may at any time purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares in the manner as the Board of Directors may decide.
- (8) The Company may redeem a redeemable share in the manner as the Board of Directors may determine.
- (9)
 - (a) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary in these Articles shares shall be freely transferable and registration of the transfer of such shares shall not be subject to any restriction, save and except to the extent required for compliance with statutory requirements.
 - (b) Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary in these Articles, as long as the shares of the entity are quoted in the Colombo Stock Exchange, the Board may register without assuming any liability therefor any transfer of shares which is in accordance with the rules and regulations in force for the time being and from time to time laid down by the Colombo Stock Exchange and/or by the Central Depository of the Colombo Stock Exchange.

- (10) The Company shall not register more than three persons as Joint holders (including the principal holder) of any shares except in the case of executors, administrators or heirs of a deceased shareholder.

8A. Consolidation and sub division of shares, capitalization of reserves and reduction of stated capital

- (1) The Company may by ordinary resolution -
- a) consolidate all or any of its shares issued at the time, with the objective of reducing the number of shares in issue;
 - b) sub-divide (split) all or any of its shares issued at the time with the objective of increasing the number of shares in issue leaving unaffected the relative voting and distribution rights of the holder of those shares.
- (2) The Company may by special resolution reduce its stated capital to such amounts as it thinks appropriate in accordance with section 59 of the Act.
- (3) The consolidation, sub division, capitalization or reduction of stated capital shall take effect on such day as may be determined in the said resolution or by the Board.
- (4) The Company shall issue a share certificate for revised number of shares consequent to such consolidation, sub division or if applicable on the reduction of stated capital in lieu of the share certificates held by the shareholder.
- (5) The Company shall complete the direct deposit of the shares to the respective shareholders accounts and dispatch the share certificate to the shareholders within such time as may be set out in the listing rules from time to time.
- (6) In the event of shareholder becoming entitled to a fraction of share, consequent to the consolidation, sub division, capitalization or reduction of stated capital, the Directors shall have the power to sell such fractional entitlements and distribute it to the shareholders in proportion to their entitlement.”

9. Quoted share transactions

- (1) Except as required by law no person shall be recognized by the Company as holding any share upon any trust and the Company shall not be bound by or compelled in anyway to recognize any equitable contingent future or partial interest in any share or any interest in any fractional part of share or (except only as by these Articles or by law otherwise provided) any other right in respect of any share except an absolute right to the entirety thereof in the registered holder
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph (1) the Company shall enter in its register a notice of any trust, expressed, implied or constructive given by a Company:-
- (a) a primary object of which is to act as central depository to a stock exchange licensed under the Securities and Exchange Commission of Sri Lanka Act No. 36 of 1987; and
 - (b) which has been approved by the Minister in charge of the Ministry to which the subject of companies has been assigned in consultation with the Securities and Exchange Commission of Sri Lanka established by the said Act No. 36 of 1987
- (3) Where a notice of any trust expressed, implied or constructive is entered in the register of the Company under paragraph 2 above the person for whose benefit any shares in the Company are held in trust shall in respect of those shares notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles enjoy all such rights and privileges and be subject to all such duties and obligations as a registered shareholder of those shares would be entitled or be subject to under these Articles and under the Act

- (4) Where the index of the names of the members of the Company kept under the Act contains the name of any company referred to in paragraph 2 above there shall be annexed to such index all written notices given by such company relating to the person for whose benefit the shares registered in the name of that company are held in trust by such company
- (5) The rights and entitlements attached to quoted shares shall not be varied without the consent of at least three fourths of the holders of such shares
- (6) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Articles so long as the Company is listed on the Colombo Stock Exchange the Company shall comply with the Rules of the Colombo Stock Exchange and the Central Depository System which shall be in force from time to time

C. MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

10. Rules relating to meetings of shareholders

A meeting of shareholders may determine its own procedure, to the extent that it is not governed by these Articles.

11. Notice of meetings of shareholders

- (1) Written notice of the time and place of a meeting of shareholders shall be given to every shareholder entitled to receive notice of the meeting and to every director and the auditor of the Company—
 - (a) not less than fifteen (15) working days before the meeting if such meeting is the Annual General Meeting or if it is intended to propose a resolution as a special resolution at that meeting;
 - (b) not less than ten (10) working days before the meeting, in any other case.

PROVIDED however any such meeting may be called by a shorter notice if the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 135 of the Act are complied with.

- (2) The notice shall set out—
 - (a) the nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting in sufficient detail to enable a shareholder to form a reasoned judgment in relation to it; and
 - (b) the text of any resolution to be submitted to the meeting.
- (3) An irregularity in a notice of a meeting is waived if all the shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the meeting attend the meeting without protest as to the irregularity, or if all such shareholders agree to the waiver.
- (4) If a meeting of shareholders is adjourned for less than thirty (30) days, it is not necessary to give notice of the time and place of the adjourned meeting, other than by announcement at the meeting which is adjourned.

12. Methods of holding General Meetings

A meeting of shareholders may be held either—

- (a) by a number of shareholders who constitute a quorum, being assembled together at the place, date and time appointed for the meeting; or
- (b) by means of audio, or audio and visual communication by which all shareholders participating and constituting a quorum, can simultaneously hear each other throughout the meeting.

13. Quorum at General Meetings

- (1) Subject to paragraph (3) of this Article, no business may be transacted at a meeting of shareholders if a quorum is not present.
- (2) A quorum for a meeting of shareholders is present if five (05) shareholders are present in person or by proxy
- (3) If a quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting is adjourned to the same day in the following week at the same time and place, or to such other date, time and place as the directors may appoint. If at the adjourned meeting, a quorum is not present within thirty minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the shareholders present or their proxies shall be deemed to form a quorum.

14. Chairperson at General Meetings

The Chairperson of the Board of Directors or another person nominated by the Board shall chair all the meetings of shareholders.

15. Voting at General Meetings

- (1) In the case of a meeting of shareholders held under paragraph (a) of Article 12, unless a poll is demanded, voting at the meeting shall be by whichever of the following methods as determined by the chairperson of the meeting—
 - (a) voting by voice; or
 - (b) voting by show of hands.
- (2) In the case of a meeting of shareholders held under paragraph (b) of Article 12, unless a poll is demanded, voting at the meeting shall be by shareholders signifying individually their assent or dissent by voice.
- (3) A declaration by the Chairperson of the meeting that the requisite majority carries a resolution is conclusive evidence of that fact, unless a poll is demanded in accordance with paragraph (4) of this Article.
- (4) At a meeting of shareholders, a poll may be demanded by —
 - (a) the Chairperson of the meeting; or
 - (b) not less than three (03) shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting; or
 - (c) a shareholder or shareholders representing not less than ten per centum(10%) of the total voting rights of all shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting.
- (5) A poll may be demanded either before or after the vote is taken on a resolution.
- (6) If a poll is taken, votes shall be counted according to the votes attached to the shares of each shareholder present and voting.

- (7) The Chairperson of a shareholders' meeting shall be entitled to a casting vote.

16. Proxies

- (1) A shareholder may exercise the right to vote either by being present in person or by proxy.
- (2) A proxy for a shareholder is entitled to attend and be heard at a meeting of shareholders as if the proxy were the shareholder.
- (3) An instrument appointing a proxy shall be in the following form or a form as near thereto as circumstances admit:

SINGER (SRI LANKA) PLC
[Company Registration No. PQ 160]

I/We, of being a Member/Members of the above-named Company, hereby appoint of or failing him of or failing him of as my/our proxy to vote for me/us on my/our behalf at the Annual/Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company to be held on the day of 20..... and at any adjournment thereof.

Signed this day of 20.....

- (4) No proxy is effective in relation to a meeting, unless the instrument of appointment of proxy is lodged with the Company not less than forty eight (48) hours before the start of the meeting.

17. Minutes of General Meetings

- (1) The Board shall ensure that minutes are kept of all proceedings at meetings of shareholders.
- (2) Minutes which have been signed correct by the Chairperson of the meeting are prima facie evidence of the proceedings.

18. Shareholders proposals

Shareholders entitled to do so may give notice of the resolution to the Company in accordance with section 142 of the Act and it shall be the duty of the Company to give notice of the resolution or circulate the statement, or both, as the case may be, in accordance with section 142 of the Act. The Company is not required to give notice of a resolution or circulate a statement in the circumstances set out in subsections (4) or (5) of section 142 of the Act

19. Votes of joint holders

Where two or more persons are registered as the holder of a share, the vote of the person named first in the share register and voting on a matter, shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.

20. Loss of voting right if calls unpaid

If a sum due to the Company in respect of a share has not been paid, that share may not be voted at a shareholders' meeting other than a meeting of an interest group.

21. Annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings of shareholders

- (1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article, the Board shall call an annual meeting of the Company to be held —
 - (a) once in each calendar year;
 - (b) not later than six months after the Balance Sheet Date of the Company; and
 - (c) not later than fifteen months after the previous Annual General Meeting.

The meeting shall be held on the date on which it is called to be held.

- (2) The Company need not hold its first annual meeting in the calendar year of its incorporation, but shall hold that meeting within eighteen months of its incorporation.
- (3) An extraordinary meeting of shareholders entitled to vote on an issue may be called at any time by the Board, and shall be called by the Board on the written request of shareholders holding shares, carrying not less than ten per centum (10%) of votes which may be cast on that issue.

22. Resolutions in writing

- (1) A resolution in writing signed by not less than eighty-five per centum (85%) of the shareholders entitled to vote on the resolution at a meeting of shareholders, who together hold not less than eighty-five per centum (85%) of the votes entitled to be cast on that resolution, is as valid as if it had been passed at meeting of those shareholders. The Company need not hold an annual meeting if everything required to be done at the meeting (by resolution or otherwise) is done by resolution and is in accordance with this Article. Such resolution in writing may consist of several documents (including facsimile or other similar means of communication) in like form each signed or assented to by one or more shareholders or their authorised signatories or attorneys.
- (2) Within five working days of a resolution being passed under paragraph (1) of this Article, the Company shall send a copy of the resolution to every shareholder who did not sign it (in compliance with section 144 of the Act).
- (3) A resolution may be passed under paragraph (1) of this Article without any prior notice being given to shareholders.

23. Shareholders entitled to attend and vote at meetings

- (1) The shareholders who are entitled to receive notice of a meeting of shareholders for any purpose shall be —
 - (a) if the Board fixes a date for the purpose, those shareholders whose names are registered in the share register on that date;
 - (b) if the Board does not fix a date for the purpose, those shareholders whose names are registered in the share register at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the notice is given.
- (2) A date fixed under paragraph (1) of this Article should not precede by more than thirty (30) working days, the date on which the meeting is to be held.
